

Adam Leitman Bailey Receives Highest Rating

From Avvo

The Avvo Rating evaluates a lawyer's background, based on the information known about the lawyer. The rating is calculated using a mathematical model that considers the information shown in a lawyer's profile, including a lawyer's years in practice, disciplinary history, professional achievements and industry recognition.

Data is periodically collected from multiple sources, including state bar associations, court records, lawyer websites, and information that lawyers choose to provide to Avvo.

The Avvo Rating is unbiased because the ratings are calculated using a mathematical model, with which all lawyers are rated by the same standards. There's no favoritism because you can't pay to change your ratings. Avvo Rating is developed by legal experts for non-experts. The model used to calculate the Avvo Rating was developed with input from hundreds of attorneys, thousands of consumers, and legal experts.
