

Real Estate Journal

THE LARGEST WEEKLY COMMERCIAL/INVESTMENT NEWSPAPER COVERING THE STATE

Jeffrey Metz to serve as managing partner at Adam Leitman Bailey, P.C.

Jeffrey Metz

According to Adam Leitman Bailey, P.C., Jeffrey Metz, Esq. will be joining its real estate legal team. Metz will serve as the managing partner of the Appellate Bureau of the now 17-attorney real estate law firm located in the Financial District.

Metz is considered to be one of the preeminent real estate appellate attorneys in the state, bringing over 25 years experience advocating to New York's appellate courts. Metz has participated in many of the most important New York real estate decisions of this generation.

Adam Leitman Bailey, P.C. is a prominent, AV Rated real estate law firm that received Super Lawyer honors in years 2007 and 2008, and was also named to the 92nd Edition of the Bar Register of Preeminent Lawyers. The firm provides real estate services in the following areas: Purchase and sale of real property, real estate and business litigation, landlord representation, tenant representation, condominium and cooperative representation, fire department and building violations, commercial lease preparation and negotiation, business law, mortgage finance practice group, homeowner and tenant associations, title insurance claims group, foreclosures, loan workouts and restructuring.