Super Lawyers

In 2013, Adam Leitman Bailey, P.C. received the largest number of Super Lawyers and Super Lawyer Rising Stars in New York City than any other real estate law firm with fewer than 30 attorneys. Adam Leitman Bailey, P.C. is also the only real estate litigation law firm with under 30 attorneys that has also received recognition from Chambers and Partners, AV® Martindale-Hubbell rating, Super Lawyers honors, and selection into the Registry of Preeminent Lawyers as well as the American College of Real Estate Lawyers and Best Lawyers.

Nine Adam Leitman Bailey P.C. attorneys became part of the New York metro area real estate attorneys to receive Super Lawyer and Super Lawyer Rising Star honors. Law & Politics magazine identified the top 5 percent of attorneys in the New York Metro area based on an independent survey of nearly 90,000 attorneys. Sixty-two percent of the lawyers selected are from firms with more than 75 attorneys. The list was published by the magazine and in a supplement in The New York Times. Law & Politics performs the polling, research and selection of Super Lawyers in a process designed to identify lawyers who have attained a high degree of peer recognition and professional achievement. Selection for Super Lawyers is particularly noteworthy as ballots for the directory are sent to every lawyer in the state who has been licensed to practice for five years or more. The attorneys who made the list were nominated by their peers and were selected based on peer recognition and professional accomplishments including verdicts and settlements, transactions, representative clients, experience, honors, awards, and a blue ribbon panel review and independent research.
